EGYPT: YOUR MOMENT IN TIME

MALAKA HILTON

Now is the time to visit Egypt. In Cairo, you'll find uncrowded temples, vibrant markets with room to move, and contemporary artists making their mark. Outside the city, discover villages that few travelers have seen. And you can sail the Nile—even go for a swim—on your own schedule aboard a private dahabiya. 📍

DISCOVER THE MAGIC OF RWANDA'S SILVERBACK GORILLAS

SUSAN SPARKS

There is nothing more exhilarating than encountering a huge, majestic silverback gorilla in its natural habitat. And if you see one of their adorable babies? Unbelievable. It is an adrenaline-charged experience you'll never forget. 📍

ARTS BOUTIQUE HOTEL B IN LIMA, PERU

BETTY JO L. CURRIE

Today Lima is thriving, and visitors are reveling in the booming culinary and arts scenes. Arts Boutique Hotel B opened in April and is Lima's first luxury boutique hotel catering to epicurean and art-obsessed travelers. The hotel is connected by a private passageway to a neighboring art gallery. 📍

NXAI PAN NATIONAL PARK IN MOZAMBIQUE

JOSETTE CARRIZZO

You relax on a beach that seems to go on forever without a soul in sight, bathed by blue waters. Occasionally a dhow or a fishing boat passes by and offers you fresh fish for lunch or dinner. Friendly locals live in round thatched huts where evil spirits can't hide in corners. You've found a timeless escape. 📍

Cari Gray

BICYCLING IN BURMA

CARI GRAY

The recently opened country of Myanmar, also known as Burma, is a fascinating place to explore by bike, foot, and boat. Gray&Co. does it in style—from the lush green landscapes of Inle Lake to the thousands of pagodas in Bagan. 📍

Lauren Maggard

SAN BLAS ISLANDS, PANAMA

LAUREN MAGGARD

Panama City is an easy getaway from North America, and the San Blas Islands, northeast of the city, are a pristine paradise. Overwater casitas at the Coral Lodge create a truly rustic barefoot luxury experience: palm trees, turquoise water, and white sand beaches. 📍
